Following Our Good Shepherd Through Grief

September 27, 2014

Lisa Patterson lives in Ontario, California. She has a degree in computer programming and has taken part in designing programs for the medical industry and the Los Angeles Police Department. However, she has decided to place her technical degree on hold, perhaps forever, and she is most happy working part time with children at her church in Pomona. She is also very busy pursuing other passions in her life.

Lisa enjoys speaking for women's retreats as well as for many other different events. She currently serves as a Regional Speaker Trainer for Stonecroft ministries and she is also the Women's Ministry leader for Pomona First Baptist's Celebrate Recovery Program.

Her greatest gift on earth is her family. Together with her husband Gary, Lisa has facilitated Biblical marriage classes and they have also mentored many other couples. She loves Zumba, writing and going to the beach. Her favorite thing to do is to hang out with her husband and her sons...all 7 of them! She also absolutely loves spending time with her precious grandson Cash who completely melts her heart!

Lisa's motto in life is that "God works in you so that He can work through you." Lisa has been through some very painful things in life but she has discovered that Jesus is enough for whatever we face in this world and He is able to make something beautiful out of our brokenness.

In her talk, Following our Shepherd, Lisa shares a very personal story of tragedy and triumph. Lisa goes through the 23rd Psalm and shares the extraordinary way that God used this Psalm to prepare her for the most devastating chapter of her life, the death of her oldest son Anthony. She also shares how God has taken her pain and given her a new passion and purpose in her life.
