

Repurpose Belongings into Holiday Gifts

A way to keep a beloved person close is with his or her physical possessions, which carry his or her energy. Below are ideas to repurpose loved one's belongings into meaningful gifts for yourself and family members. These projects can serve as a healing activity, keep a loved one's memory near, and serve as useful keepsakes.

With the holidays only two months away, I hope you can use these tangible ways to share the spirit of the person you miss.

Make Mittens

Use sweaters to make cozy mittens to keep hands warm.

Craft A Cardigan

Turn your loved one's sweater into a stylish cardigan.

Construct a Wristlet Wallet

Make a wristlet wallet using your loved one's ties.

Design Beanie Hats

Turn sweaters into fun beanie hats for little ones.

Make T-Shirt Bags

Use your loved one's t-shirts and make reusable bags.

Chelsea Hanson, www.withsympathygifts.com

October 26, 2015