Overview

Compassion 101, Introduction to Church Chaplaincy, is open to anyone with a heart to help those who are grieving. This program offers training on how to minister to people in the midst of trauma, crisis and loss.

This course is designed especially for clergy, religious leaders, lay ministers and others in leadership in your local church.
Learning to Care for the Local Church

- Dealing with grief and loss in the local church
- Ministering to families after a death or other loss
- Facilitating a ministry to church members who are home bound, in a nursing home, under hospice care or hospitalized
- Reaching out to the local community after a tragedy or disaster strikes
- How to start a Chaplain and Compassion Ministry in your local church.

Some of the Classes You Will Attend

- What to say, and what not to say
- How to minister to the hurting and grieving
- Stages of grief and the tasks of grief recovery
- How can I make a difference?
- Critical Incident Stress Management

Training in Crisis Intervention Skills

- Confidentiality and secrets
- Stress management
- Homicide bereavement
- Suicide bereavement
- Suicide prevention and intervention
- Dealing with loss due to Sudden Infant Death Syndrome (SIDS)
- Natural disasters and terrorist attacks

---

Gold Country Chaplaincy exists to “stand in the gap” (Ezekiel 22:30), as a faith based ministry dedicated to providing spiritual, emotional, and mental support in times of need or crisis to our military, veterans and their families, first responders, businesses, churches and the community.

---

Schedule

- Introduction to Church Chaplaincy

Contact

Chaplain Terry Morgan
Gold Country Chaplaincy
goldcountryadmin@gmail.com
916.259.1001

---

Find us on Facebook

Gold Country Chaplaincy
Hope, Healing & Help
Radio Program

---

Knowing what to say, or what not to say, can make all the difference